Why is the Demand so Great for DR. MANN'S AGUE BALSAM?

Because it will, in all cases, safely and effectually cure that much dreaded scourge of the west—Chills, Fever and ague—without fail, and in cases will counteract the poison of Malaria, of which fact thousands do testify; and, unlike all other nostrums, it is only recommended for one class of diseases, and as a tonic it is unsurpassed. We will offer a few evidences of its worth, by men of influence and high standing.

PRINCETON, ILL., Sept. 20, 1857.
Dr. Mann—Dear Sir: For several years past I have used your Ague Balsam in my daily practice, and have closely observed its effects in hundreds of cases, and in no case has it failed to produce the most happy effect. I can most cheerfully recommend it as a certain specific for chills, fever and ague, and malarious diseases.

Truly Yours, H. AUSTIN, M. D.
MARSHALL, MICH., Feb. 11, 1857.
Dr. Mann & Co.—I have sold a large amount of your Ague Balsam in this vicinity and from my personal knowledge of it, I believe it the best remedy for chills, fever and ague that has ever been sold in our state.

Respectfully Yours, O. A. HYDE.
ASHTABUL, Ohio, Jan. 1st, 1858.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: In canvassing the states of Ohio and Michigan for the sale of the different remedies of which we have control, our attention has been called to observe the great name that your ague balsam has gained for itself in every place where sold. It really seems to be the people's own remedy, and its sales more rapid than all others. It is destined to supersede all other ague remedies in the market.

Very truly yours,
A. S. HENDRY.
NEW YORK, Feb. 23, 1858.
Messrs. S. K. Mann & Co.—Gents: I have at our house in St. Louis sold your ague balsam some three years, and have carefully observed its effects in curing, and must in all candor say, I do not believe its equal exists in all the world of medicines. To my personal knowledge it has cured permanently every time, and I have known it used after all other remedies have been tried in vain with the most happy result; and what is more remarkable I have never known a case but what remained cured, for at least that season. I have no hesitation in recommending it as a perfect triumph over chills and fever.

Respectfully Yours,
DR. O. J. WOOD.

JENKINS & CO., WHOLESALE DEALERS IN TEAS ONLY, PHILADELPHIA.

THE new crop of Tea is now arriving, and selling much below the high rates of the past year; the present therefore opens with the pleasing prospect of our again being able to furnish as good an article for the price, as formerly. We also take pleasure in announcing that we have concluded to extend the time on small bills, heretofore sold on two and three months, to three and four months credit.
Thousands of Grocers and general Store keepers now sell Teas in our Metallic Packages, and the number is constantly increasing, notwithstanding the strong prejudice that once existed against teas put up in this convenient form. This unexampled success is the legitimate result of a business uniformly done, for a long term of years upon just and fair principles, and especially with an eye to that wholesome one of "SMALL PROFITS AND QUICK RETURNS."
Teas being a perishable article, dealers are recommended to order small and frequent bills.

Those who still prefer the old way, are furnished with teas in the original half-chests, at three cents per lb. less than in Metallic Packages.
C. D. Hurlbutt is no longer in our employ as Traveling Agent—his place being supplied by another. JENKINS & CO.
